

Cala dei Gabbiani

Tour Guide · Baunei Coast, Sardinia, Italy

About the Beach

Cala dei Gabbiani is a beautiful cove on the Baunei Coast in the Gulf of Orosei, eastern Sardinia. Its name means “Seagulls’ Cove” because many seagulls gather there, especially at sunset.

The beach has fine sand mixed with small white pebbles, crystal-clear turquoise and green water, and is surrounded by high rocky cliffs. It is less crowded than nearby famous coves such as Cala Mariolu and is often ranked among Sardinia’s most beautiful beaches.

Quick Facts

|              |                                            |
|--------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Location     | Baunei Coast, Gulf of Orosei, Sardinia     |
| Nearby coves | Cala Mariolu, Cala Biriala, Cala Goloritzé |
| Beach type   | Fine sand and white pebbles, clear water   |
| Access       | By boat (main way) or long trek            |
| Facilities   | None – completely natural                  |
| Best for     | Swimming, snorkelling, scenery, quiet      |

Best Time to Visit

The best period is May to September, when the sea is warm and the weather is good. July and August are the busiest months. May, June and September are usually quieter and still excellent for swimming.

How to Get There

There is no road access. The cove can only be reached by sea or by a long hike.

1. By Boat (Recommended)

- Organised boat tours / mini-cruises leave from Santa Maria Navarrese, Arbatax or Cala Gonone.
- Many tours stop at Cala dei Gabbiani together with other famous coves (Cala Mariolu, Cala Biriala, Cala Goloritzé, etc.).
- You can also rent a small boat (gommone) without a licence from these ports.
- Book in advance in high season.

2. By Trekking

- A demanding hike of about 3–4 hours starts from the Golgo plateau (near Baunei), crossing forest and rocky paths.
- Suitable only for experienced hikers. Proper footwear, plenty of water and ideally a guide are recommended.
- Not advised in the heat of July–August.

What to Do

- Swim in the clear turquoise water
- Snorkel near the rocks and shoreline
- Relax on the sand and pebbles
- Take photos of the cliffs and water colours
- Enjoy the quieter atmosphere compared with more famous nearby coves

What to Bring

- Water and food (nothing is available on the beach)
- Sunscreen, hat and sunglasses
- Swimwear, towel and water shoes (pebbles can be uncomfortable)
- Snorkel mask
- Cash if your boat tour has extras
- Bag for rubbish — leave no trace

Facilities

There are no facilities at Cala dei Gabbiani — no bars, toilets, shops or shade structures. It is a completely natural cove. Bring everything you need for the day.

Useful Tips

1. Book boat tours early in July and August — places fill up.
2. Water shoes are useful because of the pebbles.
3. Avoid sitting right under the cliffs — small rockfalls can occur.
4. Respect the environment: no camping, take all rubbish away.
5. The cove is often less crowded than Cala Mariolu.
6. Check sea conditions before booking — tours may be cancelled in rough weather.

---

Information compiled for 2026. Always check current boat schedules, sea conditions and local advice before travelling.

Cala dei Gabbiani · Baunei Coast · Sardinia, Italy