

Grace Bay Beach

Tour Guide · Providenciales, Turks and Caicos

About the Beach

Grace Bay Beach is the most famous beach in the Turks and Caicos Islands. It stretches for about 12 miles (19 km) along the northeast coast of Providenciales (Provo) and is regularly ranked among the best beaches in the world.

The beach is known for its powdery white sand, calm turquoise water, and protected location inside a barrier reef. It is part of Princess Alexandra National Park. All beaches in Turks and Caicos are public.

Best Time to Visit

The weather is good most of the year. Peak season is roughly December to April. Shoulder months such as May, June and November often offer pleasant weather with fewer crowds.

How to Get There

Flying In

- Fly into Providenciales International Airport (PLS).
- Direct flights are available from many US, Canadian and other cities.
- Grace Bay is about a 10–20 minute drive from the airport.

From the Airport to the Beach

- Taxi: about 15–20 minutes; typical cost around US$30–35 to Grace Bay resorts.
- Rental car: available at the airport — useful if you want to explore further.
- Many hotels offer airport transfers.

Beach Access

- All beaches are public. Look for marked public access points along Grace Bay Road and Lower Bight Road.
- Free parking is available at most access points.
- Popular access areas include near Seven Stars, Grande Court, Forbes Point and Rickie's.

What to Do

- Swim and relax on the soft white sand
- Try watersports: paddleboarding, kayaking, parasailing, sailing
- Book a boat or snorkel cruise to the reef and nearby cays
- Shore snorkelling is better at Bight Reef / Coral Gardens (western end)
- Enjoy beachfront restaurants and bars
- Watch the sunset

What to Bring

- Reef-safe sunscreen, hat and sunglasses
- Swimwear and towel
- Cash or card for rentals, food and taxis
- Snorkel gear if you plan to go to Bight Reef
- Water shoes optional

Facilities

Grace Bay is well developed. Resorts line much of the beach and offer loungers, umbrellas and watersports for guests. There are restaurants, beach bars, shops and grocery stores nearby (especially around Regent Village and Grace Bay Plaza). Public restrooms are limited outside resorts.

Useful Tips

1. The beach is long — walk a little away from the main resort clusters for quieter spots.
2. For better shore snorkelling, head to Bight Reef (Coral Gardens) at the western end.
3. A rental car is helpful if you want to visit other beaches and attractions on Provo.
4. Taxis can add up quickly; plan transport in advance.
5. Use reef-safe sunscreen to help protect the coral.
6. Book popular boat and snorkel tours ahead in peak season.
