

PK 9 Beach

Tour Guide · Fakarava, French Polynesia

About the Beach

PK 9 Beach (Plage du PK9) is a beautiful, secluded stretch of white coral sand on the northern coast of Fakarava Atoll in the Tuamotu Islands, French Polynesia. It is named after the kilometre marker (PK 9) on the road from Rotoava village.

The beach is known for its soft white sand, leaning coconut palms, and calm turquoise lagoon water. It is part of a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and remains largely undeveloped, making it one of the most peaceful and photogenic beaches in the South Pacific.

Best Time to Visit

Fakarava has a tropical climate year-round. The drier and more pleasant months are generally May to October. The lagoon stays warm and clear most of the year.

How to Get There

First reach Fakarava Atoll, then travel to the beach from Rotoava.

1. Getting to Fakarava

- Fly from Papeete (Tahiti) to Fakarava Airport (FAV). The flight takes about 1 hour.
- Air Tahiti and other local airlines operate regular flights.

2. From Rotoava / Airport to PK 9 Beach

- The beach is about 9 km west of Rotoava (past the airport).
- By bike or e-scooter: Most popular and scenic option (30–45 minutes). Rent in Rotoava.
- Follow the road past the airport; at the PK9 marker take the short path (about 300 m) to the beach.
- By car or arranged transfer (available through some pensions/lodges).
- By boat from Rotoava is also possible.

What to Do

- Swim in the calm, clear lagoon water
- Snorkel near the shore (excellent visibility and marine life)
- Relax on the white sand under the palms
- Take photos of the iconic leaning coconut trees and turquoise water
- Enjoy the quiet, undeveloped atmosphere

What to Bring

- Plenty of water and snacks (no shops or facilities)
- Sunscreen, hat, and sunglasses
- Swimwear and towel
- Snorkel gear if you want to explore the lagoon
- Shoes for the short path from the road
- Bag for rubbish — leave no trace
- Watch for falling coconuts under the palms

Facilities

There are no facilities at PK 9 Beach — no toilets, shops, restaurants or shade structures. It is a completely natural beach. Bring everything you need and take all rubbish away with you.

Useful Tips

1. Rent a bike or scooter in Rotoava for the easiest and nicest way to reach the beach.
2. Bring more water than you think you need — there is nothing on site.
3. The beach is quiet and rarely crowded — this is part of its charm.
4. Excellent for snorkelling; the lagoon is usually calm.
5. Respect the environment — Fakarava is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve.
6. Be careful of falling coconuts when sitting under the palm trees.
